Help protect yourself from fraud

AT&T will never contact you by email, SMS, or recorded call asking for personal information. If you receive such an email, do not reply. Never use the links in questionable emails to determine if the email is valid. Fraudsters can create fake email headers, so the sender may not be real. Ensure a site is secure by checking whether there is an "s" after the http in the address and a lock icon at the bottom of the screen.

Surcharges and other fees

AT&T imposes additional charges on a per line basis, including federal and state universal service charges, an Administrative Fee (to defray certain expenses including charges AT&T or its agents pay to interconnect with other carriers to deliver calls from AT&T customers to their customers, and charges associated with cell site rents and maintenance), and a Regulatory Cost Recovery Charge (to recover costs of compliance with certain government imposed regulatory requirements, including Wireless Number Portability and Number Pooling, and E911).
